

June 2025

I returned from another exciting trip to India and witnessed many wonderful things that the Lord is doing. I also heard some deeply moving testimonies of how God moved in people's lives. I found the testimonies of God's compassion incredibly moving as people relived how God saved them or intervened in their lives. One woman shared how her 3-month-old son died at the hospital from Cholera and how the doctor pronounced her son dead. She was distraught by this news and could not accept the fact that her little boy was dead. With tears flowing down her face, she told the congregation how she held her son's lifeless body for 90 minutes and then ran with her son's body to a nearby church to have a pastor pray for her now dead son. Pleading with God in prayer, she heard the church bells ring out, and her son started breathing and became animated once again. Her testimony was incredible and deeply moving. She continued to share more about God's faithfulness in her life, and it was refreshing to see so much love and enthusiasm coming from her for God. After the service, I spent some time with her asking more questions, and then her son, now full-grown, showed up. It was a great testimony, and it got even better. The power of a testimony centered on God's faithfulness is inspiring. The story of the Gerasene demoniac is a great example as he goes throughout his community and shares the great things God has done. Also in Rev 12:11, we are told how the saints overcome the evil one by the blood of the Lamb and the power of their testimonies. My friends, please be encouraged that your testimonies about God's faithfulness in your lives are unique and powerful, and I pray that God would allow you to share with others the great things He has done for you.
