Dear Friends,

I am thrilled to share some exciting news with you: I will be returning to India this March! The Lord has truly opened a door for me, and I am eager for you to be a part of this next chapter.

During this trip, I will have the opportunity to explore new areas where the gospel has not yet been shared, bringing the good news to unreached villages for the very first time. We will also have the chance to uplift and encourage others with stories of God's faithfulness and prepare for the future growth of our House of Hope ministry.

This journey is an excellent chance for our team to follow in the footsteps of Paul, spreading the message of Christ to those who have never heard it before. It is a privilege and a blessing to share the gospel in areas that are hungry for the truth.

I would like to extend an invitation for you to join us in one of two ways: either by participating in our March mission trip, or by supporting us through your prayers and financial contributions. Your partnership is crucial in making this mission a reality, and I appreciate your consideration.

Together, we can make a lasting impact and bring hope to those who have yet to hear the good news of Christ. Thank you for your continued support and belief in this ministry.
