Faith, Hope, and Love, but The Greatest of These is Love

Love is a universal language. It crosses boundaries and is gladly accepted no matter what country you visit. Love opens doors, heals deep emotional wounds, and gives hope to those who have a crushed spirit. It brings relief to the brokenhearted. Real love heals the wounds of the abused and rejected. It can surge like a mighty wave, or sprinkle like a mist on a hot summer day. The power of love reaches deep into the human heart and comforts the old and young alike. Love ultimately comes from our eternal Father in heaven, and He gives it beyond measure.

As a young child, six-year-old Magana suffered greatly after losing her Father, and her mother abandoned her shortly after that. She came to know the love of God at the Children’s Home in Yellamanchilli, and she shares His love with everyone she meets. Your contributions allow us to provide for Magana and many other children during this time of uncertainty. Although you might never get to hear her voice or hold her little hand, please know that she is grateful for all your love, prayers and support.

Please cut and return bottom portion along with your donation.
